THE CURSE OF THE COMET.

Tonopah last night started on a journey through the tail of Halley's comet. The start was not noticeable, which may appear quite strange, and it is also thought that the finish will also be devoid of incident. The day was fit for such a journey, and the millions who embarked on the trip, have as yet, failed to lodge any complaints.

Contrary to all expectations the end of the world did not arrive and a few of the more superstitious were greatly disappointed.

The effect of the tail was noticeable in more ways than one. A few who early felt the influence of the heavenly visitor's appendage, committed rather strange acts. But they were not to be blamed. Neither should they be held responsible if their actions continue as long as we are whirling about in the wake of Mr. Halley's evasive aerolite.

So today if a stranger should approach you and ask for a loan of ten dollars, hand over the amount, but don't look to have it repaid. For the borrower is under the influence of the tail of the comet.

If a friend should walk up and swat you in the eye, don't fight back. He is under the influence of the comet.

If another man should run away with your wife, don't blame him. Blame the comet.

If Jimmie Sweeney should come out with an announcement that he will be a candidate for United States senator, forget it. It is the comet, not Jimmie, talking.

If Frank Golden announces that he will pay "dollar for dollar" to the depositors of his bank, just smile. It is the comet again.

If the doctor announces that twins have arrived at your house, don't doubt him, but blame it on the comet.

The poor old comet and its tail will be blamed for many things and we can give thanks that we are not graced with its presence very often.

Tonight we will again be in the midst of the tail and the influence that will result during the second visit is prombelat-sal.

"How's this?" asked Blinks, reading from the ten-cents-a-line advertising columns of the newspaper:

"A stout German lady wants washing at home."

WILL PRESENT HAWAIIAN DANCE AT BIG CASINO

MEMBER OF QUEEN LIL'S
FAMOUS TROUPE TO AP-PEAR IN THIS CITY.

Three of the company of new performers that are to appear at the Big Casino, arrived yesterday from San Francisco and the balance of the company will be aboard this morning's train.

Among them is a star performer, who until recently was a member of the royal troupe of Queen Lillokalan, of the Hawaiian Islands and who performed at the royal castles at Honolulu. She has taken the American name of Miss Besie St. Clair, although her right name is Hi Nove Nove. She was a favorite of the queen and only danced before her royal majesty on stated occasions.

During late years Miss St. Clair has appeared on the leading theatrical circuits and has delighted and pleased thousands with her dance.

In addition the other performers will make up a cast that will be hard to beat. There will be specialties tonight in addition to the overtures of Mons Joo Valle, the wizard on the accordion.

Tonight the Big Casino will also receive the returns of the Ketchel-Papke fight by rounds, direct from the ring-side which will be read out as soon as they are received.

A Nebraska editor announces he wants to purchase a sack of flour, a pair of three-ply button trousers and a straw hat, and that he is prepared to receive bids on the same. He says that is the way the merchants do when they want $2 worth of job work.

CLEANING DAY WAS OBSERVED BY ALL TONOPAH

SIX WAGONS WERE IN CON-
STANT USE CARTING AWAY
THE RUBBISH.

Chief of Police Ed Malley was the busiest man in town yesterday and as the evening rolled around the largest part of Tonopah was as clean of rubbish as a bullfrog is of feathers. Six wagons were employed throughout the day hauling the refuse and trash to the garbage dumps, and as the work was not quite completed they will again be in evidence today.

It appeared that everybody caught the spirit and went to work cleaning up their premises with a will. The garbage was piled in the streets and as fast as the wagons could travel to the dumps and return additional loads were secured.

Chief Malley announced last night that parties who thought they had been overlooked, would be accommodated today, as the wagons would continue on the job until every house in town had been visited.

EVERETT SHOULD BE PARDONED AT EARLY DAY

On Sunday evening Sergeant Newgard of the state police returned from Reno, having in charge Frank Everett who was returned to the prison here. It is more than probable that the attorneys of Everett will ask for the parole of their client at the next meeting of the board of pardons and it is reasonable to suppose that this will be granted as the operation performed upon Mr. Everett has removed the cause of his great crime and he has become mentally and physically sound.—Carson News.

(PERSONAL)

Gilbert Ross left yesterday afternoon for Manhattan to look after mining interests.

Doc. Blaker, the Manhattan freighter, came in from the northern camp yesterday.

George B. Thatcher, who visited Goldfield yesterday on legal business, returned last evening.

F. R. Mack and wife are recent arrivals from Texas. Mr. Mack is with the T. & G. railroad.

Frank Tait was over from Goldfield yesterday looking after business for the Nevada-Armour company.

E. A. Barrette, of Swift and company, with headquarters at Goldfield, was transacting business in Tonopah yesterday.

Charles E. Kaiser and B. G. McBride, the Las Vegas sheep men, left yesterday for their homes in the south section.

W. W. Paine, a government inspector, after paying a visit to the local liquor merchants, left yesterday for Goldfield.

C. O. Burkert, the Manhattan attorney, left yesterday for the Pine Tree camp, after transacting legal business in this city.

J. F. Davidson, the Round Mountain mining man, left yesterday for his home in the hydraulic camp, after spending a week at Goldfield.

Mrs. Musante, wife of Dr. Musante, accompanied by her daughter, has arrived in Tonopah from the coast, and will make their home here.

W. T. Virgin, the Goldfield representative of the Tonopah Lumber company, left yesterday for his home, after spending a day here on business.

Jake Goodfriend, manager of the Goodfriend circuit of moving picture theaters, was a Goldfield visitor yesterday, returning on the evening train.

BIG TIME TONIGHT AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The young people and the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church have struck hands and vow they are going to have the biggest time yet tonight at the church.

There is to be no admission charged and all friends, of whatever race, color, or previous condition of servitude, will flock together and have a jolly good social time and get acquainted all around.

An exceptionally good program is planned. There will be instrumental music galore. Little Miss Parker is going to sing also. Another little lady has promised to recite a piece or two and five of the bunch will present the best fun yet, in a side-splitting illustration of "Bridget" and "The Lady of the House."

Then there will be the big feed. Each of the ladies will bring a dainty box of lunch (just big enough for two) and these are to be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Of course, the lady goes with the box and there is to be a lively time. Ice cream and cake will also be served so that all can be in on the feed.

The idea is for everyone, young and old, large and small, to get together for a good time. Don't you be the only one to miss it.

STOCK MARKET

The sales as received by Harry Epstine yesterday show that the Tonopah market is receiving continued attention of the investors. But one important change was noticeable, and that was in Belmont, which closed strong and regained 7½ cents, closing at $3.90 bid.

The rest of the market suffered in a mild way from the various fluctuations.
